

2021-2022 WINTER INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Are you a Wisconsin Native American student looking for a future in natural resources and conservation career opportunities?

The Wisconsin Tribal Conservation Advisory Council is looking for Native American students who are interested in applying their skills to natural resource conservation education and outreach with a virtual internship. The applicant must have access to a computer and internet and have experience with social media applications. The use of virtual conferencing platforms for weekly meetings is required. Applicant must meet the minimum 2.5 GPA requirement. If interested, please apply today!

WORK REMOTELY FROM YOUR CAMPUS

UP TO 40
HOURS/MONTH
$16/HOUR

RESUME AND USDA
PATHWAYS TRAINING AND ASSISTANCE

NETWORKING AND VALUABLE CAREER EXPERIENCE!

ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS
THROUGH OCTOBER
19TH, 2021

Interested candidates should email a cover letter of interest to mjohnson@wtcac.org

WWW.WTCAC.ORG

Internships will start in November and end in April